

One decorator detail that pulls a room together?

“TRIMS. APPLYING TRIMS TO WINDOW TREATMENTS, UPHOLSTERY, OR PILLOWS ADDS A SUBTLE, FINISHED LOOK.”
Matthew Patrick Smyth

Your favorite coffee table accessory?

Sculpture. It adds scale and interest, and keeps the table from looking like the requisite one piled high with “coffee table” books.

Dream china pattern that you wish every client wanted?

For me, it's not about one china pattern, but a wonderful collection of china. I don't own full sets of china, complete with five-piece place settings and all the various serving pieces like gravy boats and sugar bowls. Instead, I prefer to create my own uniquely mismatched service. But, I always have a similar color palette to unite the various pieces.

Best kids' furniture?

Anything at Giggle (giggle.com) for babies, and Serena & Lily for kids. I have put my money where my mouth is in both instances. (“Hayworth Shelf” from serenaandlily.com)

Best way to display family pictures?

The most important thing is to group family pictures together on tabletops or in bookcases, rather than sprinkling them around. You get more impact this way, but it's critical to make sure that the frames are all similar in color and material.

Favorite floral print?

I have always loved classic hand-blocked floral linens used on the reverse side, as they look so much softer. I designed my favorite floral print for Lee Jofa, “Garden Roses,” with that look in mind. (leejofa.com)
